

MIC AND CHIPP PORTION OF THE 2008 TREASURE HUNT

These clues (intentionally easier than most of the clues on the regular hunt) are intended exclusively for the Mics and Chipps. Only the Mics and Chipps are allowed to solve, find, or hand in these clues. Treasure hunters who find treasures marked MCPD are to leave them alone, and nobody should tell the Mics and Chipps where they are hidden. Teams that give unauthorized assistance to their Mics and Chipps will be severely penalized.

BONUS CLUE: When all the clues have been found, the letters on the backs can be rearranged to spell out a clue to the island location where the bonus treasure is hidden. This treasure, unlike the others for the Mics and Chipps, is not marked with the letters MCPD. In other words, it looks just like a treasure from the regular hunt and is therefore subject to being torn up after three incorrect guesses.
